Valley Forge, Pa.

Washington Memorial Chapel

WASHINGTON MEMORIAL CHAPEL

Beautifully located, overlooking Valley Forge 1500 acres State Park, the camp ground of Washington's Army in the winter of 1777-1778. The chapel's architecture is simplified English Gothic and many of the structure's details and furnishings are symbolic. Adjoining the chapel is the National museum displaying interesting relics.

No. V-1

— Copyrighted 1939 & Publ. by K. F. Lutz, Philadelphia 43, Pa. —

3

Original Photography Printed in U. S. A.